1. UNB Art Centre: Attending the Apocalypse at Memorial Hall, Sundays from 12-5pm, Sept 14 – Oct 25

The UNB Art Centre presents Attending the Apocalypse by Jennifer Lee Wiebe and Janice Wright Cheney, an exhibit that was cancelled during the COVID-19 pandemic. While the exhibit was presented virtually it will now actually be on view in the gallery spaces from. In keeping with COVID-19 requirements for physical distancing and contact tracing, the exhibit will be accessible Sundays only. To view the exhibit, please visit the website: <https://www.unb.ca/cel/enrichment/art-centre/index.html#booknowand>, and sign up for a date and time; only 4 people will be allowed in each gallery at one time for a 20 minute period.

In Attending the Apocalypse Jennifer Lee Wiebe and Janice Wright Cheney provide a commentary on contemporary society by exploring the idea of networks, both digital and biological. Social media, like mycelia, has a broad network and an organic reach. In Scratchcards for the Apocalypse, Jennifer Lee Wiebe explores language and our understanding of content in a series of canvasses painted with tweets made by Donald Trump since 2015. In Elysium, Janice Wright Cheney explores the symbolic power of mushrooms and the potential for mycelia to reshape our society. A catalogue will accompany this exhibit and copies will be available free of charge to members of the public in attendance at the UNB Art Centre galleries. Back to top.

2. Montgomery Street Band with Womb to Tomb on Sept. 18 at 7pm at Charlotte Street Arts Center

Tickets start at $30 for a table of 2 at <https://thecaplive.com/tickets/the-montgomery-street-band-september-18th-at-csac?fbclid=IwAR3KJihoWoIshfWNRzLV1UVdQ6FtuPnO02E9T8AMcEDnHvZLaV4bWWkg>. Back to top.

3. Upcoming Events at The Topsy Muse Sept 18 & 19

- September 18 at 7pm: Come celebrate the release of Katherine Moller's newest album Tea & Tunes. Katherine will be joined by Tom Richards to perform an evening of traditional and original Celtic fiddle tunes. Enjoy music from the album as well as old favourites.
- September 19 at 7pm: Kill Chicago has a careful knack for weaving heartfelt messages through boisterous rock'n'roll. Natural storytellers with a political core, this New Brunswick-based quartet has made a name for itself through electrifying live shows and an honesty that reflects their blue collar history. Chill Chicago takes things down a notch and includes Greg Webber and Dillon Anthony.

4. First I'm Buying an NB Book! Day on Sept. 19

Bookstores, publishers, and literary organizations across New Brunswick are teaming up to launch the first ever I'm Buying an NB Book! Day. The aim of this rallying event, which fosters curiosity and pride, is to highlight New Brunswick authors and increase sales of their books in local bookstores.

New Brunswick literature is diverse and rich in stories, and deserves to be showcased in our home libraries. On September 19, readers of all ages are encouraged to visit a bookstore or retail location, or to shop online through their favourite bookseller or publisher, to purchase books by New Brunswick authors. Everyone is invited to take part in this celebration of local literature called I'm buying an NB book / J'achète un livre du N.-B. Back to top.

8. Tertulia: Tom Beckley on Wendell Berry on Sept. 23 at 7pm by Zoom

What is a tertulia? A tertulia can be described as a literary and artistic social gathering or philosophy cafe where participants talk about ideas. Tertulias combine words, music, poetry, art and whatever else speakers want to share.

Tom Beckley is a sociologist and professor in the Faculty of Forestry and Environmental Management at the University of New Brunswick. His research focuses on rural communities, sense of place, community forestry, public engagement in forestry policies, and energy and climate change. He grows his own food and manages a woodlot in Keswick Ridge. Wendell Berry is an American novelist, poet, environmental activist, cultural critic, and farmer. He is the author of The Unsettling of America, numerous novels, essays, short stories, and poetry.

Register for the Zoom link at fredericton.tertulia@gmail.com. Tertulia Fredericton is partnering with the NB Media Co-op to publish videos of some of the tertulias at nbmediacoop.org. This tertulia is supported by RAVEN Rural Action & Voices for the Environment, and the Tobique River Trading Co. For more information, contact: fredericton.tertulia@gmail.com. Back to top.

10. NBCCD Advanced Studio Practice Free Guest Lecture Series presents Mary Stewart on Sept. 24

Advanced Studio Practice's Guest Lecture Series is partnering with the Atlantic Centre for Creativity to provide a virtual experience to the annual series. The purpose of the Guest Lecture Series is to model successful contemporary practice to our students and to inform, inspire and ignite art and design dialogue and engagement in the greater public community. They are professional talks delivered by invited guest speakers on art, design and related visual practices.

This week's lecture is:

- Mary Stewart: *The Parts and the Puzzle - This presentation will explore three questions. How can our past experiences inform our current choices? Which current projects have the greatest potential? and How can our current actions set the stage for future growth? Professor Mary Stewart is an artist, author, editor and educator. Her artwork has been included in over 90 exhibitions, and she is the author of Launching The Imagination: A Comprehensive Guide to Basic Design. In connection with a Fulbright Fellowship she received in 2019, she helped to expand the Atlantic Centre for Creativity website and served as the guest editor for the first edition of its journal.

These noon-hour sessions celebrate the creative, cultural and academic achievements of artists, designers and fine craft practitioners. They are free of charge and open to the public. Watch the lectures on Zoom each Thursday at 12pm at this link: bit.ly/guest-lecture-series. Back to top.

11. Sackville Festival of Early Music 2020 Online on Sept 25 & 26

We will stream inspiring performances curated especially for our Festival and featuring two of North America's finest early European music ensembles – Juno award winning L'Harmonie des saisons, and New York-based and international touring ensemble TENET Vocal Artists.

We will miss seeing you in person this year. To acknowledge the isolation and various struggles of artists, audience members, students and families, and the community at large, we are excited to offer full access to our 16th season of the Sackville Festival of Early Music at no cost.

Register to receive concert links by sending us an email at sackvilleearlymusic@gmail.com. The concerts will be available for viewing for 48 hours from their time of release allowing you to access content at your leisure and from the comfort of your home. The streaming link will be emailed to your inbox prior to the event. Back to top.

12. Drive-In Movie: Les aventures de Rémi at Centre Communautaire Sainte-Anne on Sept. 26 at 9pm

Don't miss the French movie, Les aventures de Rémi, in the Centre communautaire Sainte-Anne's parking lot. Vehicles can arrive at 8:30pm. There will be free popcorn, and moviegoers can bring their own beverages and other snacks. This movie will be shown in French without English subtitles.

Tickets are $10 per vehicle, and will be on sale at the front desk of the CCSA or at ccsa.yapsody.com. For more information, call 453-2731 or info@ccsafredericton.ca. Back to top.

13. NBCCD presents Hindsight: 2020 Diploma Exhibition at King's Landing, Sept 26 – Oct 11, 10am-5pm daily

Join us as we celebrate and reflect on the work created in the 2020 school year, in Hindsight, a graduate exhibition for the students at the New Brunswick College of Craft & Design. We want to give these students the opportunity to showcase their work, to celebrate their successes and to move forward as artists into their new normal. Back to top.

14. 2020 Studio Watch Exhibition featuring Lucy Koshan opens on Sept. 27 at 3pm at Gallery on Queen

This exhibition is done in Collaboration with the Beaverbrook Art Gallery. Lucy will be discussing her work during the opening.

We are pleased to announce the 2020 Studio Watch Emerging Artist – Painting exhibition will be on display at Gallery on Queen, and will run until mid-October. We will have limited in-person seating to maintain physical distancing, as well as an online live stream available for viewing. Complimentary publications will be available. 15. Theatre New Brunswick Announces Playwrights for Fall Festival

Theatre New Brunswick's upcoming Fall Festival of New Plays will feature new work from twelve New Brunswick Playwrights. Beginning this October, the Fall Festival of New Plays will provide twelve new, emerging, and established New Brunswick playwrights with a range of support to help get their next script off the ground.

Participating playwrights will receive professional dramaturgy and direction through online conferencing, as well a full cast of actors to bring their stories to life. Using various social media platforms to host interviews, readings, and discussions, this eight week event will provide audiences with the rare experience of seeing plays move through the development process from initial drafts to stage-ready works of theatre.

The festival's featured playwrights are Norm Foster, Ryan Griffith, Jena McLean, Abby Paige, Len Falkenstein, Alex Rioux, Caroline Coon, John Barlow, Liam Browne, Kirsten Alter, Jean-Michel Cliche, Samaqani Cocahq-Natalie Sappier, and special guest Vern Thiessen. Back to top.

16. Kristen Bishop Chosen for 2020 Nel Oudemans Award

Since 2002, the Sheila Hugh Mackay Foundation has offered the Nel Oudemans Award for an emerging artist in the fields of fine craft and design; it continues to be a mark of distinction for New Brunswick artisans. The Board of Directors acknowledges the support of jurors Cathy Ross, Sarah Brinkhurst and Theresa Macknight in the 2020 jury process.

The 2020 recipient is Kristen Bishop. Based on the recommendation of an independent jury, Ms. Bishop will receive the $2,000 award in recognition of her accomplishments in the early stages of her career. Kristen Bishop's artistic practice has been marked by the honing of traditional metalsmithing techniques as well as an exploratory spirit. She is noted as an artist who pushes boundaries to explore creative possibilities. Bishop has earned the respect of her peers, building a body of work that has been featured in juried and invitational group exhibitions. She is an active member of the New Brunswick arts community, poised to excel in a professional career. Back to top.

Workshops | Classes | Art Camps

1. Stepping into Art Workshop (Ages 50+) on Thursdays from 9am-10:30, Sept. 17 – Oct. 22

Whether you are igniting a new skill, rediscovering, or wanting to learn more, we are here to inspire individual creativity and joy through a community environment and engagement. All Inclusive Community Art Classes encourage the process not just the product, and provide a variety of quality art materials and instructions to create new projects weekly. We are here to develop skills and community, grow, explore our individual creative process, play and inspire connections through creativity.

The cost is $150 plus tax for the 6 week session. There are 7 spots available. You can register though <https://rebekahjaneart.ca/product/stepping-into-art/>, or email RebekahJaneArt@outlook.com. Back to top.

2. Registration Open: New Fall Programs at the TNB Theatre School starting Sept 24

Due to the number of health and safety measures put in place by the Province of New Brunswick, our fall season will look a little different than in previous years with smaller class sizes and revised curriculums. In spite of these changes, creativity, imagination, friendships and FUN remain at the forefront of all that we do!

- New Program: Adult Musical Theatre Dance (Ages 19 and Up)
Location: Theatre School Rehearsal Hall
Dates & Times: Thursdays from 7:15 to 8:45pm, September 24- November 12 (8-week program)
Musical Theatre Dance Technique offers performers tools to enhance their dance skills through stylized choreography, as well as dance technique through some of Broadway's hottest hits. Gain confidence for dancing in musicals, while learning in a fun, encouraging, and safe environment.
- New Program: Intermediate/Senior Filmmaking (Grades 6 – 12)
Location: TNB Open Space Theatre
Dates & Times: Thursdays from 7:30 to 9pm, September 24 - December 10
Students will study the many aspects and roles involved in filmmaking with the award winning filmmakers of Strike Pictures, including acting for the camera, directing, screenwriting, art direction, cinematography, and editing. As a class, students and the Strike Pictures team will go through the process of creating, shooting, and editing an original short film.

To register, view the complete fall course listing, or to see details of the plans put in place to ensure the safety of our students, visit: <https://www.tnb.nb.ca/fallwinter-programs/>. Back to top.

Auditions | Call for Artist Submissions & Awards

1. Audition Call: Mrs. Clause's Festive Frosty Follies: A Socially Distant Christmas Cabaret

Auditions will be held on September 25 & 26

Hang up the mistletoe and trim the tree! Mrs. Clause is hosting a Christmas Cabaret to help save The North Pole from her evil landlondess Jackie Frost. This Socially Distant Cabaret will stream in December. Most rehearsal will be done in your own time.

Interested auditionees should email Kate@branchoutproductions.ca to book an audition for an acting role, as a singer, dancer, or any combination of the three! Auditionees interested in playing a spoken role will be given a cold read from the script. Those interested in dancing will be sent a video to prepare and submit. Those interested in singing must prepare and memorize a verse and a chorus of a Christmas song of their choice. Open to ages 6- 600! Filming will happen in late November 2020. For more information, visit: <http://branchoutproductions.ca/auditions>. Back to top.

2. NB Arts Board: Creation Program

Application deadline October 1, 2020

The Creation Grant program is designed to provide assistance to professional New Brunswick artists for the research, development and execution of original projects in the arts. Creation Grants are intended to allow artists to devote some or most of their time to research and creative production. For more information, please visit: <https://artsnb.ca/web/programs/creation/>. Back to top.

3. NB Arts Board: Documentation Program

Application deadline October 1, 2020

The Documentation Grant Program is designed to provide assistance to New Brunswick arts professionals and professional artists for the research, development, and execution of original documentation and contextualization (written, film, video, multimedia) of arts activities, arts products or art history. Documentation grants are intended to foster theoretical and critical discourse in the arts. Preference will be given to proposals concerning New Brunswick art or artists. For more information, please visit: <https://artsnb.ca/web/programs/documentation/>. Back to top.
